WELCOME

The rugged beauty of the New Mexican high desert inspires the dramatic architectural design and impeccable detail of our custom homes. The current design trends derived from the Mediterranean and the Southwest favorites of Territorial and Pueblo styles, as well as Soft Contemporary interpretations thereof, are extensions of our palette. Thoughtful planning to incorporate the natural elements and diverse topography unique to each home site, in concert with the individuality of the homeowner, produces a beautiful, one of a kind home.

These safe, convenient and effective collars train dogs off-leash to be responsive and out of trouble.
